

SOCIETY

GEORGETOWN.

REGENT OF LATEST D. A. R. CHAPTER.

Evermay is noted for the delightful outdoor affairs presided over by Mrs. Orme and Mrs. Hume, and it was a tea given Friday by Mrs. Hume which proved quite the feature of the week. The guests of honor were: Mrs. Amphlett of England and Mrs. Underwood of Knoxville, Tenn. Those assisting Mrs. Hume were Mrs. Robert Small, Mrs. Charles James, Mrs. Charles Hume, Mrs. Graham Hume, Miss Stokes of Richmond, and Mrs. Thomas Hume.

Mrs. James T. Bootes, wife of Capt. Bootes, and her mother, Mrs. Buck of Oregon, have been visiting in Washington during the past week. They left Friday for a short stay with relatives in Wilmington, Del.

Western High School will give its annual festival in May. The entertainment will be given by members of the school and during the latter part of the two evenings of the festival there will be dancing.

Dr. Pate, of Dumbarton M. E. Church, was cordially welcomed back to the church at a reception Tuesday evening of last week. Mr. Weller Fisher presided at the meeting which preceded the social hour. There were speeches of welcome by members of the church representing the different branches of the work. The official board was represented by Mr. Joseph Oliver, Mr. Isaac Birch spoke for the Sunday school, Mr. Heiston for the Epworth League, Mr. Dowling for the Brotherhood and Mrs. Buzze for the Ladies' Mite Society. Two fraternal addresses were made by Rev. Mr. Marshall, of West Street Presbyterian Church, and by Rev. Mr. Warrington, of the Lutheran Church. Dr. Pate gave a pleasant speech of appreciation.

The musical programme was delightful. There were piano solos by Miss Bessie Louise Hume and Miss Mildred Cornwell. Miss Bessie Birch sang a couple of songs and there were other solos by Mr. William T. Glover, Mr. John Mitchell Waters and Mr. Adrian. Mrs. Birch, the organist, accompanied the singers. Among those present to meet Dr. Pate were Mrs. and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Birch, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Hume, Miss Edna Hume, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Houghton, Mrs. Virginia Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Johnson, Mrs. Margaret Pate, Mrs. John Mitchell Waters, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Fisher, Mrs. Henry Brown, Mrs. L. P. Heiston, Miss Virginia Houghton, Mrs. Irwin, Miss Ruth Irwin, Miss Mildred Fisher, Miss Maude Allen, Miss Ella Allen, Miss Nellie Sebastian, Miss Mabel Darcey, Miss Ella Darcey, Miss Lewis, Miss William Sebastian, Miss Eva Darcey, Professor B. F. Janney, Mr. J. Albert Houghton, Dr. Lindsey and Mr. A. W. Hudson.

Mr. T. Lightfoot Wormley has returned from a visit in Baltimore.

Rev. T. S. Childs, Childs and their daughter, Miss Helen Childs, have returned from a visit of a couple of weeks in Atlantic City. During Mr. Childs' absence Rev. Mr. Marsten conducted services.

Mrs. Henry Brown has been her guest for part of the week her sister, Mrs. Mary Smith, of Seminary Hill.

The Dumbarton Club gave a dance Tuesday evening. Among those present were Miss Margaret Easterday, Miss Pennebaker, Miss Kehoe, Miss Wright, Mr. Harper, Mr. Nailor, Mr. George Easterday, Mr. Ballanger and Mr. Fleming.

Miss Emily Glover is to sing the Nymph of the Rhine at the Rubinstein Club recital, which is to be at the New Willard Wednesday of this week. Miss Glover will also sing at the tea to be given by Mrs. Hensley for the Bell Home Tuesday of this week.

Among those from Georgetown who assisted with the music at the Garfield Post entertainment were Miss Bessie Birch, Miss Laura Wade, Mr. William T. Glover, Mr. Thayer and Mr. Adreon. Mrs. Birch was at the dining room.

A ball will be given Thursday of this week by the Dixey Chapter at the Confederate Home.

The tea Thursday given by Mrs. Fielding Marshall, Jr., for her daughter, Mrs. Amphlett, was one of the most attractive of the spring season. A most pleasing effect was gained in the dining room by having long sprays of dogwood decorating the walls and on the table lilacs which were arranged in a large mass in the center, with smaller bunches at each corner. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Rawlin Hume and Mrs. Underwood. Mrs. James served punch.

The inmates of the Home for Incurables have been recently entertained by members of the Church of the Covenant.

At present Miss Dill is arranging for another concert to be given at the Home this week.

Rev. H. Barrymore Angus has returned to Peck Memorial Church.

A most enjoyable entertainment was given last week by the Men's Club of Christ Church to the ladies of the parish. The evening was opened with a lecture by Mr. Frederick H. Newell, his subject being the reclamation of our desert lands. Mr. Newell gave a brief and comprehensive talk, covering with pictures and explanations the work in different sections of the country where dams have been built and the water directed to arid lands.

Following Mr. Newell's lecture refreshments were served. Among those present were Mr. George King, the president of the club; Mrs. George King, Mrs. MacCartney, Miss Emily Matthews, Rev. James Blake, Mrs. Blake, Miss Frances Blake, Capt. and Mrs. Kreidler, Mrs. Reich, Miss Brewer, Mrs. Graves, Miss Anna Abbott, Miss Mattie Abbott, Mrs. Bryan, Miss Worsley, Miss Anne Blackwood, Miss Jubelle Parrie, Mr. Cheney, Mr. Munson, Mr. Adler, Mr. and Mrs. Blackwood, Mr. Gordon, Mr. Duvall, Mr. Bennett, Mr. Percy Thompson, Mr. Harper, Mr. Owen Thompson and Dr. Bennett.

Miss Alice Carson left Saturday to visit relatives in Chillicothe, Ohio. She will spend the summer in the Middle West, returning to Washington next fall.

A number of Georgetown girls are interested in the musical tea to be given the afternoon of April 15th by the alumni of Gunston Hall. The object is the same as with the tea given at the bishop's house before last, the prisoners' aid.

Mrs. Waldo Hibbs entertained at a dinner last week for Mrs. Sennett, of Boston, and Col. Stauffer, of Texas.

Miss Blanche Polk, soloist at All Saints' Church, Chevy Chase, left Thursday for a short visit to Philadelphia.

During her absence Miss Isabel Thiney Taylor will take Miss Polk's place in the services at the church.

Rev. Mr. Marsten, who has been conducting services at All Saints' Church, has only recently been ordained. When Mr. Marsten graduates from the Episcopal Seminary in June it is his intention to settle in Oregon.

MISS BERTHA FRANCES WOLFE, College woman, organizer of Wendell Wolfe Chapter, D. A. R., in the District of Columbia.

Miss Bessie Birch and Mr. John Mitchell Waters sang at the spring concert given at Y. M. C. A. Thursday evening.

Mrs. Clarence Dawson has her sister from New York visiting her.

Miss Frances Dodge entertained one of her card clubs Friday afternoon. Later a number of her friends were invited to a tea.

Mrs. Kreidler entertained with Miss Van Doren Wednesday evening last for the Abrahams Club. One of the pleasant features of the evening was a paper by Mrs. Mary W. Story on "Dolly Madison." Capt. McIntosh, U. S. N., retired, read an amusing short story, "Miss Emily R. S. Glover sang a number of pieces during the evening. Mrs. Lindsey also gave vocal selections. She was accompanied on the violin by Mr. Lindsey. Those assisting with the refreshments were Miss Barber and Miss Pierce. Among the guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Edward Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Casanova, Dr. and Mrs. Brumbaugh, Mrs. McIntosh, Dr. James McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Perham, Mrs. Pierce, and Mr. Potwin.

Mrs. Charles Alvin Smith has as her house guests Mrs. Kirkpatrick, her mother, and a niece, Mrs. Keene, both of New York. Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Keene will make a short visit in the South before returning to New York.

A delightful banquet was given Thursday evening by the Potomac Lodge. Judge John Lacy introduced the speakers. The invocation was by Rev. E. D. Stone. A delightful speech of welcome was made by Mr. W. Clyde Hunt. Other speakers were Mr. George C. Ober, Hon. Victor Murdoch, Representative from Kansas; Hon. W. R. Ellis, of Oregon, and Mr. J. Holdsworth Gordon. Among those at the banquet were Mr. William Leitch, Mr. and Mrs. Birch, Rev. James Blake, Miss Marshall, Mrs. Murdoch, Miss Lacy, Dr. Ray, Mr. Frank Leitch, and Mrs. Stone.

A special musical programme has been arranged for this evening at Peck Memorial Church. Charles Wesley's hymns will be sung to the accompaniment of an orchestra of ten pieces. Rev. H. B. Angus, the pastor, being a master violinist, will assist with the music.

The surprise parties at Peck Memorial Church were a great success. The one Friday afternoon proved quite a surprise.

DONNELLY ON PANAMA.

His Lecture Feature of Meeting of Unity Club.

The meeting of the Unity Club on Wednesday evening at 822 Sixth street northwest, President L. H. Patterson in the chair, was featured with an illustrated lecture on "Panama," by Hon. Samuel B. Donnelly. He told of the work being accomplished in the Canal Zone, with pictures showing the past and present condition of the isthmus.

The musical features were a piano solo, "Venetian Barcarolle" (Carl Moran), played by Miss H. M. Forker; the "Armore's Song," sung by Robert S. Campbell, accompanied by Miss Campbell; violin duets, "Il Trovatore" and "Come to the Forest," by the Misses Dodge, accompanied by Mrs. Ingraham Bell, while Daniel A. Kildare captured the audience with his full, rich voice in "Anchored," with Miss Forker at the piano. Mr. Kildare, who has done noteworthy work in lecturing on "Ben-Hur," illustrated the lecture of the evening with his lantern slides.

Miss Campbell did effective work in her recitation, "The Judgment Day," and James L. Honeyway carried off honors in recitation and monologues. J. E. Colton gave a feeling and sympathetic talk.

The president announced the lecture to be given on "Persia: The Land of the Lion and the Sun," by Mrs. L. J. Young Withee, the recording secretary, at Pythian Temple, on May 2.

PUBLICITY IS DISCUSSED.

American Pen Women Would Abolish Certain Practices.

Publicity was the subject at the meeting of the League of American Pen Women Wednesday at their headquarters, 1347 L street. Miss Elizabeth A. Hyde was in the chair.

Mrs. Susie Root Rhodes read a paper on "The platform and the press," and Mrs. Anna Sanborn Hamilton presented one on "Advertising." Much discussion followed as to where news stories and advertising begins in the press notices of public speakers and entertainers.

The growing practice of cutting out all comment on the speaker and his subject, while considerable space is devoted to gowns worn by persons in the audience, was deplored. Mrs. J. O. Estabrook read an original humorous story of country life.

Miss Florence Brown to Speak.

Miss Florence M. Brown will speak on the annual conference at Silver Bay, N. Y., at St. Paul's Lutheran Church next Wednesday evening. The lecture is to be given under auspices of Silver Bay Chapter, Y. W. C. A. and members of missionary societies and Sunday schools who are to be represented at the annual conference are invited to attend.
